

ESFP

Your life's motto: “Don’t worry. Be happy!”

Loves teaching and helping others get along. Enjoys athletics, team sports and outdoors, enthusiastic, encouraging, likes varied fast-paced work day, loves animals, likes all kinds of people, easily makes friends, good listener, likes working on many different projects at once, good interpreter, good at gathering info.

Your life's challenges:

Think about future implications

Don’t take things too personally

Follow through on commitments

You are especially satisfied with work that:

Lets you learn from hands-on experience where you look for common sense solutions

Lets you get personally involved by working directly with clients or customers physically out of the office

Lets you work with lots of other people in an active and social environment, with variety, fun, and spontaneity

Requires skillful handling of people and conflicts and the ability to help groups work more cooperatively together

Lets you juggle multiple projects or activities

Lets you interact with other easygoing and social people that share your enthusiasm and realistic point of view

Lets you work on projects that are of immediately useful and take into account the needs of people around you

Is done in a friendly and relaxed environment free of hidden political agendas

Rewards your hard work and good intentions

Lets you have fun and enjoy everyday surprises with minimal rules and restrictions

Some careers you may find particularly satisfying; this is not a full list of careers, just some possibilities.
