

INFJ

Your life's motto: “Catalysts for positive change”

Likes to use their ideas and knowledge to help others. Likes interpersonal relationships. Likes learning. Good at developing new approaches to the problems of individuals or society. Good people-focused problem solver.

Your life's challenges:

Pay attention to details

Be flexible

Be willing to act spontaneously

You are especially satisfied with work that:

Lets you create news ideas/approaches to problems that help others to grow and develop

Lets you produce a product or service you believe in and are proud of

Recognizes your authorship and ownership and unique contributions

Lets you express yourself and see the results of your vision

Lets you implement your ideas for the good of people and work with others on a one-on-one basis

Is done in a friendly and tension-free environment where your ideas are seriously considered

Can be done independently but with the opportunity to frequently share with others

Lets you organize your own time and work environment and exert control over the process and product

Gives you adequate time to formulate and process ideas

Is in harmony with your personal values and beliefs and lets you maintain personal and professional integrity

Some careers you may find particularly satisfying; this is not a full list of careers, just some possibilities.
