

ISFP

Your life's motto: "It's the thought that counts"

Good at working with hands, likes working alone or one-on-one, observant, creative, likes short-term problem solving, practical, cooperative, fun, likes to be appreciated.

Your life's challenges:

Assert yourself

Step back and consider the big picture

Don't take things too personally

You are especially satisfied with work that:

Is consistent with your strong inner values and is something you care about and want to contribute your energy and talents to

Is done with others in a supportive and affirming place where you are a member of a team

Requires attention to detail, where you work with real things that benefit other people and have practical applications

Gives you freedom to work independently but nearby other people, where you don't feel restricted by excessive rules or inflexible operating procedures

Gives you a sense of purpose and allows you to see and experience the results of your accomplishments

Lets you use your sense of taste and aesthetics to personalize your physical work place

Is done in a quietly cheerful and cooperative setting with minimal interpersonal conflicts

Gives you an opportunity to experience inner growth and development within a context of work that I feel is important

Lets you handle problems promptly and simply, offering practical help

Does not require you to perform regular public speaking or give people negative feedback
